

Application for Membership in the formation of a Community Advisory Group for the Former Fort Ord

Conditions for Membership:

Community Advisory Group (CAG) members are volunteering to serve a term and attend all CAG meetings. Duties and responsibilities will include reviewing and commenting on technical documents and activities associated with the Former Fort Ord located in Monterey County. Technical experts will be made available to the CAG. Members will be expected to be available to community members and groups to facilitate the exchange of information and/or concerns between the community and the CAG. CAG community members can expect to devote approximately 12 days per year to support the CAG.

Priority for CAG membership will be given to local residents that are impacted or affected by the cleanup at the Former Fort Ord.
